Sturgis, MI (July 26, 2011) Owens Products, Inc., known for their sleek running boards with applications for pickups, vans, SUVs, and CUVs, now offers the ClassicPro Series, aluminum running board for the 2012 Nissan NV full size van.

ClassicPro boards come in bright diamond tread aluminum or extruded aluminum—bright or black finish, and are available in cab or full-length applications. For the Nissan NV it is available in a 2” riser only. Choose full-length boards for both sides, or a shorter driver side board with a full-length passenger side board. Easy to install body mount brackets are also featured.

“For hard working vans, the ClassicPro is a perfect fit,” Gary Kirtley, CEO and Owens Products owner said. “This design looks great on the NV and offers maximum stepping strength.”
